Age concern

The Renu range from Susan Molyneux addresses natural, genetic, chronoageing, photoageing due to UV damage and hormonal ageing. Proven, potent and natural actives are the ingredients selected for their strong affinity to the cell structure. These actives are both easily absorbed and recognised – communicating with the skin.

Surface value

Daily Resurfacer from Dermologica is recommended for all skin conditions. It is designed for the client who wishes to achieve smoother, healthier-looking skin without having to use several different products. The three-in-one treatment resurfaces using Salicylic Acid, Sugar Cane Extract and fruit enzymes to stimulate cell renewal and cell turnover.

2005 top ten products

Buttered up

Buttercups has used futuristic fabrics in its 2005 uniform collection to fit the needs of the salon and spa. Trendy, loose fitting styles ensure the cool, airy workwear can be worn by the therapist – a must for carrying out demanding and energetic treatments. The polyester/cotton fabric gives the coolness or breathability, and the polyester gives the support and durability to the fabric.

Pump it up

Grahame Gardner has chosen to include a number of contemporary pumps and ballet shoes in its collection, to complement the popular Vitality range. The ballet style shoes are the first design in the new Vitality Footwear Collection. Available in the season's biggest colours, black and white, the shoes have a supportive cushion within the sole and a non-slip base.
